Even if we are not at fault and the cancellation period has expired (e.g. you have simply changed your mind), you can still end the contract up to 30 days before the experience is completed, and we will refund any sums paid by you, however we may deduct from that refund an administration fee of 20% of the price of your experience. We cannot offer you a refund if you simply change your mind within 30 days of the experience taking place, however in exceptional circumstances we may find an alternative date for you to participate in the experience.

possible, we will let you know at least 7 days in advance of us ceasing to provide the experience, except where we are unable to do so due to reasons beyond our control (e.g. adverse weather conditions). We will refund any sums you have paid in advance for the experience.

10. If there is a problem with the experience

10.1 If you have any questions, problems or complaints regarding your experience or any other matter, please contact us as soon as possible. You can telephone our team on +44 (0)1639 844620, email us at TAE.Bookings@triumph.co.uk or write to us at Triumph Adventure Experience, Unit 14 Woodlands Business Park, Ystradgynlais, South Wales, SA9 1JW, United Kingdom. 10.2 Summary of your legal rights. We are under a legal duty to provide an experience that is in conformity with this contract. See the box below for a summary of your key legal rights in relation to the experience. Nothing in these terms will affect your legal rights.

Summary of your key legal rights

This is a summary of your key legal rights. These are subject to certain exceptions. For detailed information please visit the Citizens Advice website www.adviceguide.org.uk or call 03454 04 05 06.

The Consumer Rights Act 2015 says:

a) You can ask us to repeat or fix an experience if it's not carried out with reasonable care and skill, or get some money back if we can't fix it.

b) If you haven't agreed a price beforehand, what you're asked to pay must be reasonable.

c) If you haven't agreed a time beforehand, the experience must be carried out within a reasonable time.

By law, the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013, SI 2013/3134 say that we must give you certain key information before a legally binding contract between you and us is made. We will give you this information in a clear and understandable way. Some of this information is likely to be obvious from the context. Some of this information is also set out in this contract, such as information on our complaint handling policy.

The Consumer Contracts Regulations 2013 also say that for most products bought online, you have a legal right to change your mind within 14 days and receive a refund. These rights are explained in more detail in this contract.

11. Price and payment

11.1 Where to find the price of the experience. The price of the experience (which includes VAT) will be the price indicated on the order pages when you placed your order online. If, by exception, you book directly with us by telephone, we will inform you of the price of the experience prior to making the booking. We take reasonable care to ensure that the price of the experience advised to you is correct. However please see clause 11.2 for what happens if we discover an error in the price of the product you order.

11.2 What happens if we got the price wrong. It is always possible that, despite our reasonable efforts, some of the experiences we sell may be incorrectly priced. We will normally check prices before accepting your order so that, where the correct price of an experience at your order date is less than our stated price at your order date, we will charge the lower amount. If the correct price of the experience at your order date is higher than the price stated to you, we will contact you for your instructions before we accept your order.

11.3 When you must pay and how you must pay. Please note that if you book online your payment will be processed by Eventbrite, a secure ticketing and registration platform, therefore you will be directed to the Eventbrite website in order to book your experience and pay for it. You can find further details on Eventbrite's security policies and processes at: <http://www.eventbrite.com/security/>. If, by exception, you book directly with us by telephone, please note that we accept payment with Visa, Visa Credit, Mastercard and American Express.

12. Our responsibility for loss or damages suffered by you

12.1 We are responsible to you for foreseeable loss and damage caused by us. If we fail to comply with these terms, we are responsible for loss or damage you suffer that is a foreseeable result of our breaking this contract or our failing to use reasonable care and skill, but we are not responsible for any loss or damage that is not foreseeable. Loss or damage is foreseeable if either it is obvious that it will happen or, at the time the contract was made, both we and you knew it might happen. We are not legally responsible for any loss or damage that was not foreseeable to you and us when the contract was formed, or that was not caused by any breach on our part.

12.2 We do not exclude or limit in any way our liability to you where it would be unlawful to do so. This includes liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence or the negligence of our employees, agents or subcontractors; for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation or for breach of your legal rights in relation to the experience as summarised at clause 10.2.

12.3 We are not liable for business losses. We only provide the experience for private enjoyment, therefore we will have no liability to you for any loss of profit, loss of business, business interruption, or loss of business opportunity.

14. Acknowledgment of Risk

14.1 By accepting these terms and conditions you are acknowledging that:
(a) motorsport is dangerous and can involve injury or death, and that despite us taking all reasonable precautions, accidents can happen, and that you are aware of the nature of the activity, and the risks involved, and attend the venue at your own risk;
(b) you have a responsibility to mitigate any risks involved during your experience, which means that you should wear all required safety equipment and clothing at all times;
(c) you will be expected to comply with all safety guidance and instructions given by us prior to and/or on the day of your experience;
(d) you are in good health and that your eyesight is up to the standard required for a riding test, and that you are not suffering from any other medical condition or disability which is likely to adversely affect your normal control of a motorcycle or which might make it unsafe for you to ride or participate in the experience or any other motorsport activity;
(e) you accept that you will be solely responsible for any decision to ride any motorcycle or discontinue to ride any motorcycle, or use or not use any equipment or clothing at any time whilst it is in your possession or under your control;
(f) if you should be dissatisfied prior to or whilst riding a motorcycle or using the equipment or clothing as to the satisfactory condition of the motorcycle, the equipment or the clothing you are required to discontinue riding the motorcycle or using the equipment or clothing; and
(g) we reserve the right to remove you from the venue if we consider your actions to be dangerous or detrimental to other customers.

14.2 You acknowledge that it is a condition of your booking and your participation in the experience that you must sign a participant waiver prior to taking part in the experience.

15. Other important terms

15.1 We may transfer this agreement to someone else. We may transfer our rights and obligations under these terms to another organisation.

15.2 You need our consent to transfer your rights to someone else. You may not transfer your rights or your obligations under these terms to another person.

15.3 Nobody else has any rights under this contract. This contract is between you and us. No other person shall have any rights to enforce any of its terms.

15.4 If a court finds part of this contract illegal, the rest will continue in force. Each of the paragraphs of these terms operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful, the remaining paragraphs will remain in full force and effect.

15.5 Even if we delay in enforcing this contract, we can still enforce it later. If we do not insist immediately that you do anything you are required to do under these terms, or if we delay in taking steps against you in respect of your breaking this contract, that will not mean that you do not have to do those things and it will not prevent us taking steps against you at a later date.

15.6 Which laws apply to this contract and where you may bring legal proceedings. These terms are governed by English law and you can bring legal proceedings in respect of the products in the English courts.

15.7 Alternative dispute resolution. Alternative dispute resolution is a process where an independent body considers the facts of a dispute and seeks to resolve it, without you having to go to court. If you are not happy with how we have handled any complaint or problem, you may want to use the online dispute resolution (ODR) platform to resolve the dispute with us. For more details, please visit the website on the "Your Europe" portal: <https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/odr>.

15.8 Insurance. As a participant of the experience, you will be insured for road riding and off-road riding during the experience in the event of any negligent act by us or by a third party, however we do not provide you with personal accident cover. Please make your own arrangements for personal accident cover, if required, before attending your experience. Please note that standard insurance will not cover your experience with us. Please contact us if you would like further details of our insurance cover.

15.9 Photography and filming. Please note that any photograph or footage (collectively "images") that you, or any person attending as your guest, may take is for your personal use only.
